

SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE

(as of 6 Dec 2018)

Tuesday, 22 January 2019

- 8:30am Registration
- 9:30am Welcome Speech: Professor Mary Fulbrook
“Émigrés, Child Survivors, and the Holocaust”
- 10:00am Lord Stanley Baldwin Speech (Professor Michael Berkowitz)
- 10:30am Panel 1: Caring and Adaptation in Kinder Lives
- Andrea Hammel: “The Continental Birth Parents: a Challenging Topic in Kindertransport Research”
 - Rose Holmes: “Intimacy, Domesticity and Gender: Caring for the Kinder”
 - Jane Brooks: “Nursing Lives and Work of Young Jewish Girls who Escaped on the Kindertransports”
- 13:00pm Panel 2: Archive and Testimony
- Barbara Warnock: “The Experiences of the Kindertransportees: Evidence from the Archives of The Wiener Library”
 - Jennifer Craig-Norton: “Kindertransportee Case Files: Archival Discoveries and Narratives”
 - Bea Lewkowicz: “‘We were thrown around by the tides of history’: The experience of the Kindertransport in oral history testimony”
- 14:30pm Panel 3: Representing the Kindertransport
- Marie-Catherine Allard: “Modelling Bridges between Past and Current Issues of Forced Migration: Frank Meisler’s Memorial Sculpture Kindertransport-The Arrival”
 - Claudia Linda Reese and Louise Stafford: “A Fresh Perspective on the Representation of the Kindertransport: Challenges and Opportunities of Converting an Immersive Exhibition into a Digital Learning Experience”
 - Chloe Turner: “Exhibiting Kindertransport Online: The Educational Role of Online Museums in Interpreting Kindertransport”
- 16:30pm Panel 4: Rupture and Trauma in Forced Migration of Children
- Anita Grosz: “An Artistic Response to the Impact of Transgenerational Trauma from Forced Dislocation”
 - Catherine Appleton: “The Wounds of Separation: A Graphic Memoir about Forced Migration”
 - Jon Blend and Roz Carroll: “Improvisation as Representation: Diaspora Stories Re-enacted”
- 19:30-20:45pm Evening Event at Senate House, MacMillan Hall, University of London
Diane Samuels: “Theatre of Separation and Survival: The Life and Impact of the play Kindertransport”

Wednesday, 23 January 2019

- 9:25am Welcome back
- 9:30am Panel 5: Integration and Resilience
- Stephanie Homer: “The Resilience of the Kindertransport Refugee”
 - Ujjwal Krishna: “Exploring the Integration of Child Refugees in the UK: The Case of the Kindertransport”
 - Eva-Maria Thüne: “What the Kindertransportees Tell about the Acquisition of English”
- 11:00am Keynote Speaker - Ruth Barnett
“Interest in the Kindertransport from 1938 to the 50th Anniversary”

- 13:00pm Panel 6: Placement Responses to Persecution
- Paul Weindling: “Transplanting Vienna’s Children, December 1938- August 1939. . Differing Expectations between the Place of Persecution and Reception”
 - Nurit Grossman: “The Emergence of the Kindertransport in Prague – A Unique Endeavor (Barbican Mission)”
 - Verity Steele: “Bachad and the Kindertransport”
- 14:45pm Panel 7: The Kindertransport in Literature
- Sue Vice: “Forgetting to Remember: Representations of Memory-Loss in Kindertransport Drama and Fiction”
 - Elena Hoffenberg: “The Other Other: Lore Segal's Her First American (1985)”
 - Angharad Mountford: “A Real Adventure’: The Kindertransport Experience Through the Poetry of Gerda Mayer”
 - Anita Barmettler: ““My Mother” – Karen Gershon’s Relationship with Her Mother in Her Poems”
- 17:15pm Panel 8: Child Refugee Movements in Other Lands
- Lilly Maier: “Rescued Twice: The French Kindertransport”
 - Frank Caestecker: “The Pro-active Protection in Belgium of Minor Aged War Victims and Victims of Persecution During the 1930s: the Case of 6500 Spanish and 1000 German-Jewish Children”
 - Catherine Rymph: “The United States’ Failed Kindertransport: Child Evacuation and the Wagner-Rogers Bill of 1939”
- 18:45-20:45pm Evening Event & Reception at the Wiener Library
James Bulgin: “The Imperial War Museum New Holocaust Exhibition”

Thursday, 24 January 2019

- 9:25am Welcome back
- 9:30am Panel 9: Kinder in Other Lands
- Sasha Goldstein-Sabbah: “To Save our Brethren in Europe: Baghdadi Transnational Solidarity Networks 1933-1945”
 - Paul Bartrop: ““Twice Lucky’: Kindertransport Youth Sent to Australia on the Dunera in 1940”
 - Chad McDonald: ““I felt drawn there’: Kindertransport Refugees Narrating their Return Visits to Former Hometowns”
- 11:30am Plenary Discussion about Future Research Areas
- 13:15pm Panel 10: The Kindertransport and Contemporary Refugees
- Boaz Cohen: “Kindertransport for the Enemy: Activism and Historical Relevance”
 - Bill Niven and Amy Williams: “The Role of Memory of the Kindertransport in the Negotiation of the Refugee Crisis”
 - Carly McLaughlin: “A Modern-Day Kindertransport?’ World War Two Memory Politics, the Dubs Amendment and Child Refugees in Present-Day Britain”
- 15:15pm Panel 11: Regional and Local Refugee Efforts
- Mike Levy: “We Must Save the Children - Jewish Refugees and Local Volunteers in Eastern England 1938-47”
 - Richard Hawkins: “The Dudley Refugee Committee and the Kindertransport”
 - Lesley Urbach: “Kinder at Wyberley Ladies Convalescent Home - Burgess Hill”
- 16:45pm Summary Panel & Closing Remarks